MULDOON TO BE MADE A BISHOP Chicago Pastor Is Slated to Succeed McGavick. Chicago, Nov. 3).-The Journal to-day

It is now certain that the Reverend P. J. Muidoon, paster of St. Charles Bor-

J. Muidoon, paster of St. Charles Borromeo's Church, will be raised to the purple as soon as he returns from Europe. This means that Bishop McGavick, the present auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, has resigned and that he will be replaced by Father Muidoon.

A clergyman high in the councils of the church said to-day that the announcement of Father Muidcon's appointment is being delayed on account of the fact that there is some indecision as to the exact position the prospective Bishop is to have. The plans of the church authorities are that Father Muidcon be made auxiliary Bishop and that Bishop Spalding of Peoria, or some other experienced prelate, be transferred to Chicago when death removes Archbishop Feehan.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY,

Thomas Flood Claims That Bridget Doe and a Companion Relieved Him of Five Dollars.

Bridget Doe, who lives at Second and Valentine streets, is locked up at the Four Courts on a warrant charging robbery in the first degree. It is alleged that, with the aid of John Foley, she assaulted and robbed Thomas Flood of No. 2600 Dickson street of $5 at Third and Valentine streets Vednesday night.

Flood was walking in the street when, he said, he was waylaid by the couple, who grabbed him and began to give him such a ling as he had never before received. While the man gave him the "strong arm," he said, the woman took the money from his pockets.

A complaint was made to the police and the Doe woman was arrested in her home

Foley was not located. When Flood called at the warrant office yesterday morning his face was still swollen and he showed the effects of the struggle.

Bridget Doe makes a complete denial of the charge. She said she had seen Flood in the earlier part of the evening, but that he left her house in company with Foley. If Flood was robbed, she said, she knew nothing of it.

SCARCELY SPOKE IN 14 YEARS.

Hurried Marriage of Their Daugh ter, Followed by Husband's Illness, Broke Down Barrier Pride Had Raised.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Nov. 30.-Sickness following the hurried marriage of the daughter, has brought about a reconciliation of two of the most conspicuous leaders in Washington high life-Judge and Mrs. John Davis who for fourteen years scarcely exchanged a word.

Many persons of the older official circles recall the marriage of the beautiful Miss Freylinghuysen, daughter of President Arthur's Secretary of State, and the wellknown jurist, John Davis, now Judge of the Court of Claims.

The match was looked upon with great favor and for years the couple were seemingly happy, but a coldness sprang up between them, and Mrs. Davis went abroad. taking her little daughter, Bessie. There she lived in beautiful style, much of the time in Paris. Here her American relatives and friends visited from time to time.

When Miss Bessle Davis grew to woman hood her mother decided to present her in Washington, so they returned to the Capital City, and were established in a handtal City, and were established in a handsome home on Connecticut avenue. The coming-out tea was given at the Country Club, and the handsome mother, as she stood beside the debutante, looked but few years her senior. They are remarkably alike in their bearing.

became noted members of the "smart set."

Mrs. Davis's name was always mentioned alone. When she attended notable dinners or receptions Judge Davis devoted himself to his coterie of club friends, and, while the family resided under the same roof, every one understood that they never spoke.

Judge Davis went abroad. During his absence preparations were being made for the elaborate wedding which was to unite Miss Davis and Mr. Lodge, son of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. The marriage was to have been celebrated September 19 at Bar Harbor, and Judge Davis was to return in time to give his daughter's hand in marriage. Without a word of warning, Miss Davis and Mr. Lodge slipped away to Boston and were married.

Judge Davis was taken seriously ill soon after his return to America, and when very near to death he and his wife became reunited. She nursed him through his sick-

CONDUIT-EXTENSION BILL.

Limits of Proposed New District Defined by Committee.

The Lighting Committee of the Board of Public Improvements, after considering in detail the draft of Sewer Commissioner Hermann's ordinance for the extension of the present conduit limits, has finally agreed on the following boundaries: From the river along Typer street to Thirteenth street, along Thirteenth street to Cass avenue, along Thirteenth street to Cass avenue, along Cass avenue to Easton avenue, thence to Vandeventer avenue, south to Forest Park boulevard, east to Grand avenue, south to Manchester avenue, along Manchester and Clark avenues to Jefferson avenue, thence to Chouteau avenue, and east to the river. The limits on Broadway will extend from Benton street on the north to Barton street on the south.

It will be some time before the draft will reach even the Board of Public Improvements, as there are so many phases of a strictly legal character that it will be necessary for City Counselor Schnurmacher to read the document and give his opinion. The framers of the draft propose that it shall contair a clause making it obligatory on the street railway companies to place the heavily-charged feed wires underground.

A virtue of the Hermann ordinance will Hermann's ordinance for the extension of round.

A virtue of the Hermann ordinance will be a provision compeiling the telegraph companies to place their wires in subway conduits; not only in the present, but also in the new limits. The proposed district will be three times as large as the present one. The Lighting Committee are disposed to believe that some companies will seek to have the new limits smaller than designated in the draft. Probably two or three years' time will be given the lighting, power, telephone, telegraph and railway companies to put the wires underground.

The bullet was discharged from the pistol of Lieberman's chum and roommate, James Hell, but persons connected with the shoot-ing, declare that it was accidental. Lieberman, Bell, Cornelius Ryan of No. 4542 Cook avenue; William Moore of No. 316 New Ashland avenue and a brother of Bell, engaged early yesterday morning in a craps game in a dance hall at the Chestnut street engaged early yesterday morning in a craps game in a dance hall at the Chestnut street address. At 4:30 a, m., when Lleberman was shot, these men and several women were in the room. All are now locked up at the Central District Station, save the brother of James Bell. They will be held, pending a thorough examination of the case, for the police are not entirely satisfied that the shooting was an accident.

Both Lieberman and Bell assert that Bell had a heavy revolver in his breast pocket. Lieberman was sitting on a chair in the circle of players and leading over watching the dice. Bell's revolver fell from his pocket to the floor and was discharged, the bullet striking Lieberman. Ryan and Bell secured a carriage and took Lieberman to the City Hospital.

CENTER OF POPULATION.

Moves Eastward for the First Time in History of Nation.

Whether Hawaii and the Philippines will be taken into account in locating the center of population of the United States by the census of 1900, and whether that center will be nearer to St. Louis than to indianapolis, are questions that some persons are pondering. The answer to both is "No." The Philipipes and Hawaii will not be taken into account, and the center of population this year moves further away from both St. Louis and Indianapolis. From 1780 to 1880 the center of population moved steadily westward along or near the thirty-ninth parallel of latitude. In 1800 the center of population was a little west of Greensburg, in Decature County, Indiana. This is a little southeast of Indianapolis.

The exact location of the center of population by the centus of 1900 has not yet been officially announced, but unofficial estimates of the census office move it some thirty miles eastward this time. The center of population will be still in Indiana, but close to the Ohio line. For the first time in the history of the United States it moves eastward instead of westward.

CHEROKEE TREASURER LOSES.

His Claim of $404.31 Disallowed by Examining Committee.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Tahlequah, I. T., Nov. 39.-The joint com mittee of the National Council to settle with the Treasurer has had a hard time making a satisfactory settlement. The committee has made several reports.

making a satisfactory settlement.

The committee has made several reports, which were turned down by the lower house of the Cherokee Legislature, for the reason that the Treasurer claimed a commission of 19 per cent of the money collected from the pupils and teachers of the Cherokee high schools on account of board. The committee's report, as approved shows funds of the Cherokee Nation in his hands aggregating $1,25.11; balance as from per capita payments, $2,506.29; amount collected on account of board of teachers and pupils of the high schools, $4,083.10.

The following are important parts of the committee's report: "The committee carefully compared the books of the Treasurer with his report, inspected and counted all vouchers, receipts and moneys, and refind said report correct in every respect except the retention of 10 per cent of amount collected on account of board of pupils and teachers of the high schools.

"The Treasurer claims 10 per cent of the item of $4,042.10 received by him on account of board of teachers and pupils at the high schools is not revenue as contemplated by the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and for that reason your committee has declined to allow the Treasurer any part thereof, ecourse on the illustration of the 10 per cent of the committee has declined to the Cherokee Nation for the benefit of the School Fund in the sum of $40.3."

This report of the committee has been adopted by both branches of the Cherokee Legislature.

The Treasurer of the Cherokee Nation has had quite a controversy with the United States Indian Inspector and Indian Agent on account of collecting this revenue.
